PERÓXIDOS

RESPONSIBLE CARE POLICY

Integrated Management System

(Quality, Health, Safety, and Environment)

Peróxidos do Brasil and its affiliates, leaders in the production of hydrogen peroxide and peracetic acid for all of South America, act responsibly in the manufacturing and commercialization of chemical products. Their fundamental and strategic values are Innovation, Sustainability, and Excellence, which permeate all operations. In line with these principles, they have established an Integrated Management System Policy that addresses the pillars of Quality, Health, Safety, and Environment. Thus, they commit to:

1. COMPLIANCE: Respect the applicable national and international legislation and requirements concerning quality, health, safety, and the environment.

2. PRODUCT IMPACT: Manufacture, transport, and supply products whose risks to people and the environment are mitigated throughout their lifecycle, meeting customers needs and expected requirements appropriately.

3. RESPONSIBLE CARE: Ensure that facilities are constructed, operated, and maintained with regard to protecting the health and safety of employees, subcontractors, neighboring communities, and the environment, aiming to prevent physical harm and environmental or biodiversity damage.

4. CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT: Promote the improvement of the Integrated Management System and its overall performance by listening to, engaging, and working with stakeholders to understand and address their concerns and expectations, and cooperating with governments, communities, and organizations to achieve continuous improvement.

5. SUSTAINABILITY: Strive for the continuous reduction of emissions, waste generation, energy consumption, raw material use, water use, and other natural resource consumption, aligned with sustainable development.

6. LEADERSHIP: Encourage our suppliers, service providers, and customers to adopt principles of Quality, Health, Safety, and Environment compatible with this Policy, supporting them on these topics where and when applicable.
